- Professional instruction for guided group activities such as orienteering, canoeing, kayaking, sailing, Voyageur canoeing and snowshoeing.
- Seasonal rentals that include six-seater Bison Buggies, family rowboats and canoes.
- Winter fun on the lake skating rink, snowshoeing, or the super Richardson rrrun toboggan slide.
- All areas are fully wheelchair accessible.

Siobhan Richardson Field Station

This secluded 2,000 square foot lakeside Field Station is surrounded by mature aspen forest. To lighten our carbon footprint, participants are required to walk in and walk out of this location. The 20 minute fresh air hike passing the Bison Prairie and following along the lake is the perfect way to decompress before and after meetings. Ideal for corporate retreats of up to 30 participants, the Field Station is available year-round. Interested in an overnight option? Three architecturally unique cabins each sleep 10 in a common style space with a personal window onto the natural world at each bed.

Daily Rental $350

Overnight cabin amenities & pricing available on request.

"A short note to say a big THANK YOU to everyone at FortWhyte Alive for making our day a huge success. Everything from the facilities, (especially!) the guides, the food, and even the weather, was outstanding! We have heard nothing but positive feedback from everyone who was there! (For many, it was their first time at FortWhyte Alive.)"

Thanks again!"
